

Regional Executive Nomination

HFMA and its regions enjoy a wonderful history of excellent leadership. We invite you to nominate a worthy candidate for the prestigious position of Regional Executive (RE) for 2023 – 2024. The successful candidate will be elected at the 2021 Leadership Training Conference and will serve as the RE 3 beginning June 1, 2021 and as RE 2 for 2022– 2023.

To be successful as an RE, an individual must be knowledgeable about chapter and Association matters, have served as a chapter president, have demonstrated abilities as an HFMA leader through recent chapter and/or national involvement, be an effective communicator, be genuinely interested in future involvement in national leadership, have the ability to make a commitment to meet the responsibilities of the position (listed below) including support from their employer, and be a knowledgeable and astute professional in health care financial management.

The Regional Executive is the link between the chapters and the national board. Candidates must meet the following criteria:

- ◆ The nominee must have served at least two years as an elected chapter officer including chapter president.
- ◆ The nominee may not serve concurrently as a chapter officer during their term as RE or RE 2, excluding the position of immediate past chapter president. The RE 3 may serve as a chapter officer during their term as RE 3.
- ◆ The nominee may not be from the same chapter as the current RE or RE 2.
- ◆ An application form and/or letter of interest must be submitted to the RE 2 from the year in which the RE 3 will be selected.
- ◆ Chapter Presidents-elect will vote for nominees during the Leadership Training Conference (LTC).

Specific responsibilities of the RE are delineated and approved by the national HFMA board and include the following:

- ◆ Represents the needs of the chapter leaders in the region by serving on the Regional Executive Council.
- ◆ Leads the Fall Presidents Meeting, coordinating with roles of the national board member, HFMA staff, and RE 2.
- ◆ Communicates at least quarterly with presidents and presidents-elect in the region.
- ◆ Visits all chapters during their term to the extent possible.
- ◆ Relays problems, successes, concerns, issues, and views of members and chapters to national HFMA.
- ◆ Coordinates the selection of the incoming RE 3.

- ◆ Orients and assists in training the RE 2 and RE 3.
- ◆ Coordinates and leads the assessment of chapter management practices and follows up with chapter presidents on chapter improvement activities.
- ◆ Oversees and maintains regional programs.

Specific duties and responsibilities of the RE 3 are approved by the national board and include the following:

- ◆ Completes and conveys to national HFMA the meeting record from the Fall Presidents Meeting.
- ◆ Assists the RE with regional business.
- ◆ Participates on conference calls held at least quarterly with presidents and presidents-elect and visits chapters during term to the extent possible if RE is unable.
- ◆ Relays problems, successes, concerns, issues, and views of members and chapters to RE.
- ◆ Follows up with chapter presidents and presidents-elect on chapter improvement activities.
- ◆ Assists the RE in overseeing and maintaining regional programs.
- ◆ Leads the regional sessions at the LTC.
- ◆ Coordinates the selection of the RE 3 at LTC.

Based on these required qualifications and duties, please nominate one worthy candidate for this great leadership opportunity using the attached form.

All qualified candidates will be presented to the chapter presidents-elect at the 2019 Leadership Training Conference. The presidents-elect will each have one vote at the LTC. If the president-elect cannot attend the meeting, the president-elect can select another chapter member to vote by proxy with notice to the RE 2.

Thank you for your consideration of this important and worthwhile opportunity.
